

This year our English teacher gave us some postcards and we wrote some poems looking them. We work in pairs. Everything started when read the poem "I wondered lonely as a cloud" by William Wordsworth. He was an English poet who lived in the north of England near the Lake District. In the poem he told us about his emotion when he looked at that beautiful view. So we tried to do the same and write our own poems. During this activity we felt happy and relaxed. We didn't pay attention to grammar but we only wrote what we felt when we looked at the pictures.

This is the result of our hard work...

LITTLE POETS GROW UP

WAITING FOR THE SUNSET

*I find myself on the river bank
Waiting for the sunset
Lying on the river bank
Waiting for my face glowing red
Like the fire passion for life in me
At last the sunset comes over me
A great calmness and peace
And I dream of a better future*

GOD'S PARADISE

*The palms are moved by the wind,
And the sun warms the gold sand
And the voices of mermaids are God's voice.
The flowers are coloured by the colour of LOVE.
The clouds beautify God's paradise
And the water is protected by God's angels
And they protect us.*

PILON

*The water on my skin and the sun burns on my head
Blue sea like sapphire.
Green trees like emeralds,
The waves are talking to me
And the wind is caressing my face.
No one is here,
I'm lonely,
Lost in my world.
I'm rocked by waves of the see now I see the paradise.*

WALKING ON A DREAM

When you look at this view
The heart is full of emotions
And you start watching the world with another eye
The blue sea is like a piece of heaven
The trees move like real people in the wind
And the wind is like the breath of God that looks at the beauty of the earth
The sand is warm under your feet
Maybe are you walking in the clouds?
Or maybe for you everything is fantastic because you're in love.

A PIECE OF POETRY

I feel at easy
When I look at picture like this,
It seems like a never ending vacation
Immersed in coloured environments ;
The waves break on the rocks
And they pull all my thoughts away.
The wind moves the palms
Bring away my cares of life,
In a wonderful dance.
And my heart with pleasure feels!

YOU ARE MY PARIS

The sky is pink
And the clouds are lonely
As the love that I have for you
The city is illuminated
With the lights of love
I feel sad because you aren't here
You are always in my thoughts
Come back to me because you are the love
That represents this city
You live in the air
You live in my heart
I'll wait for you forever in the place
Where I met you on our first date
I miss you.

I' M FEELING HAPPY AND SO CALM

I'm feeling happy seeing New Port beach
Everything is smiling.
The palms fluttering and dancing following the wind
Melody
And the sea, so quiet and calm,
Give us a sense of peace and wellness.
The roofs, kissed by the sun,
Colour the landscape in a brick red
Everything is so calm...
And also my heart
lets itself go in that sence of peace and so I'm feeling happy and so calm.
